Foreigners Depart
The Angel Moroni
In the Water Now
Plenty of Beer

The foreigners are departing.

Mr. MacDonald left with a high opinion of President Roosevelt, quite satisfied with the result of his mission.

Monsieur Herriot returns to France "with a clear understanding of President Roosevelt's views on war debts, political security for Europe and economic disarmment."

The American people have no such clear understanding, and will be glad when their turn comes to be enlightened.

It has not been explained to them why they should be in any way responsible for "political security for Europe."

They remember well the last time they were made responsible for that security, providing three million men and many billions of dollars, and hope that will not happen again soon. We do not start Europe's wars. Why should be be expected to stop them?

At Salt Lake City, more than 700 miles to the west of the Union Pacific Railroad, the train waits long enough to make possible a visit to the church office building, a fine structure of solid granite.

There in a great room lined with circassian walnut from the mountains of the Caucasus, said by Woodrow Wilson to be "the finest office I have ever seen," the dignitaries of the Mormon Church were gathered for discussion.

There were Heber J. Grant, President of the Mormons; Anthony W. Ivins and J. Reuben Clark, Jr., two "counsellors." Mr. Ivins is a nephew of William M. Ivins, who once ran for Mayor of New York. Mr. Clark was formerly United Sates Ambassador to Mexico.

Using the language of the old "Midway," Uncle Sam may say, "I'm in the water now."

The House has passed the "inflation bill," so-called, and those that spend public money will be able to say, if they choose, "What's a billion among friends or ten billions?"

However, there are two kinds of inflation, common sense use of the nation's credit with the backing of its gigantic wealth, and foolish inflation, based on reckless spending and money printing. To the question, "What do you think of inflation?" the answer is the same as you would give to the question, "What do you think about drinking?" It all depends on how much you drink.

One thing is certain. Millions will conclude that the best thing to do with a dollar is to spend it. That will help business and employment. And American common sense can be trusted to use American credit wisely.

Beer invites attention obstreperously everywhere. Across windows of a lonesome desert gas station you see written with soap in enormous letters "plenty beer." Five cents profit on a pint of beer is better than 2 cents on a gallon of gasoline.

The Port of Los Angeles announces heavy gains in imports, largely beer. In the month of April Uncle Sam's customs collections at the port increased $50,000, thanks to beer from Canada and Mexico.

Once bootleggers would have got the $50,000 multiplied by ten, with beer at $1 a bottle. Mexico ships "from the second largest brewery in the world," beer, "Carta Blanca Pilsner Mexicana," and names it Exquisitia.

E. J. Steinheuser of New York and Rockaway Beach, Long Island, who tried the beer when urged by Frank M. Hauser of Santa Monica, says "it is exquisitia all right."

Prices of commodities generally are going up, as the dollar promises to be less exclusive and elusive. It may, some die-hards tell you, be not such a very good dollar.

But the country seems to think that any little dollar that will buy things and circulate rapidly, will do nicely.

There really is "a better feeling," Americans being easily encouraged. The new army of forest tree planters may be finding jobs elsewhere, almost before the forest camps are ready to receive them at $1 a day and "found."

Uncle Sam has lost an island. It stood formerly at the mouth of Cook Inlet, one hundred and sixty miles south of Anchorage, Alaska, and was twenty miles long, about five miles broad, with an extinct volcano, for ornament.

This piece of property, called Augustine Island, is supposed to have disappeared, following a series of more than 100 violent earthquake shocks, possibly carrying down with it several trappers.

Experts report to Washington that in violent earthquakes, the earth moves up and down as well as sidewise, a reminder of the air currents that destroyed the big dirigible.

It is believed that study of earth movements will make possible absolutely safe anti-earthquake construction.

MUSICS OF WORLD IS A RARE PROGRAM

Henry Cowell, in the first of his series of ten lectures on the "Musics of the World," delighted his audience at the Denny-Watrous gallery Saturday night with his music from the near east. He has rare and most unusual records and the program was interesting and instructive.

MASONS HAD ANOTHER POT LUCK DINNER

With hot biscuits, Spanish beans, spaghetti with cheese and a lot of other good things clear through to delicious cakes, a pot luck supper was served Saturday evening to the Masons and their friends at the Masonic club. About thirty-six were present and played cards after the satisfying meal.

Abalone Players and Friends Will Dance

As a benefit for a fellow member, Bob Stowell, who broke his leg three weeks ago when sliding to base, the Abalone League will give a dinner dance next Monday night at Hotel La Playa, which it is predicted, will be attended by about one-hundred and fifty people.

Many parties are making reservations and all are looking forward to the event with the expectations of a good time, especially those who were fortunate enough to be present at a previous Abalone League dinner.

Each team captain has the list of his players and he will get in touch with them or they with him so that reservations may be made in advance.

All the players, previous players, and their sponsors and benefactors are expected to be present.

ILENE GLASCOCK WILL WED ROBERT CARMANY

A romance which started at the University of California in Berkeley will culminate Sunday, May 21st, when Frances Ilene Glascock of Carmel will become the bride of Robert Carmany of San Francisco.

The wedding is scheduled to take place at four o'clock in the afternoon, being attended by relatives and close friends of the young couple.

Tea will be served at the Glascock residence on Eleventh and Carmelo after the ceremony. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Silver City, Nevada, where the groom is in business.

MOTHER'S DAY AT COMMUNITY CHURCH

Next Sunday being Mother's Day, the occasion will be suitably celebrated at the Community church. Decorations becoming to the day with prevailing colors of red and white, special music, and a sermon that in some way will commemorate the Mother ideal will help make Sunday next a day to be remembered.

Notice — Adjourned Quarterly Conference will meet at the close of the above service.

MRS. JOHN McKAY HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. John McKay entertained a number of her friends at bridge last Thursday evening at her home on Santa Fe and Third. High score was won by Mrs. Paul Stoney, with Mrs. Elmer Douglas next high.

The guests were Mrs. Ivan Kelsey, Mrs. Robert Erickson, Mrs. Orley Holm, Mrs. Melvin Lindstrom, Mrs. Elmer Douglas, Mrs. Ira Taylor, Mrs. Arthur Hilbert Mrs. Paul Stoney, Mrs. Ruhl King, Mrs. George Whitcomb and Mrs. Robert Overly.

GIRL SCOUTS WILL ENTERTAIN MOTHERS

In celebration of Mother's Day, which will be Sunday, May 14, Carmel Girl Scouts, Troop No. Two, under the leadership of Miss Betty Bosworth, will entertain their mothers at tea at the Scout House Saturday afternoon from 4 to 5.

The girls take great pleasure in these affairs and are planning an especially nice hour.

Carmel Scrip Needs Boosting To Succeed

Carmel folk are urged to attend the public meeting to be held at Pine Inn tomorrow (Friday) night, to discuss the future of Carmel Dollars. Fifty otherwise unemployed are being given work through these dollars, but the scrip is not passing as rapidly as it should. Only through the purchase of stamps is money available for the pay roll.

At a meeting last Friday night, the committee urged upon the business men to offer these dollars to their customers in place of currency, but some of the merchants seemed to feel that the public does not wish to take them and that they can not afford to antagonize their customers. The best solution appears to lie in a campaign among the buyers with the entire buying public to be asked to buy at least one dollar's worth of stamps.

The matter of the scrip was taken up before every organization in Carmel before the dollars were printed and all agreed to give their hearty co-operation in making the venture a success.

At present the merchants are carrying almost the entire burden with the heaviest load falling on those who carry the necessities of life. There is strong talk that unless the public cooperates in a better spirit, a special tax will have to be levied which will equalize the burden among all the residents.

Don't forget to attend the meeting tomorrow night.

Carmel Home Razed by Fire Saturday

While Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carter were calling on friends in Monterey Saturday night, their home, with its contents at Casanova, near Ocean was destroyed by fire, caused from defective wiring.

The blaze was discovered by Miss Doris Wishart, a next door neighbor, but the whole upper part of the house was practically in flames before she saw it.

Miss Wishart phoned the fire department, and luckily, some of the members at the fire house had already seen the light in the sky and were ready to start when the call came.

The house was owned by Mrs. Lucille McCormick, a non-resident of Carmel. Mr. and Mrs. Carter are staying at present with Mr. and Mrs. Wishart.

The fire laddies worked bravely to prevent any spread of the blaze and extinguished the fire before it burned the entire structure.

GARDEN FETE FOR THE BENEFIT UNEMPLOYED

Carmel folk are asked not to forget that Saturday, May 13, is the date for the garden fete at the home of Mrs. I. N. Ford, the proceeds of which are to be used for the benefit of the unemployed.

With the small admission charge of 25 cents, no one can afford to miss enjoying himself while helping others.

One of the latest numbers to be anounced for the programs is a dance by the pupils of Ruth Austin under the Oaks in Junipero Street at 1:30, while at 2:30 Elsa Naess will give a Greek Classic dance, with the children in costume.

These two numbers will be worth many times the price of admission and there will be many other things of value.

A Few Wise Cracks About This Beer

Editor Carmel Sun:

May I tell your readers a BEER story about a TIGER? Okay with you? Well, here goes.

A KIND MAN found a cute BABY TIGER in the woods and took it home as a pet. It grew and grew and liked the NICE MAN so much that on one bright morning it ate the NICE MAN up.

"Oh, yeah?" you say, "What's that got to do with BEER?"

Well, suppose we liken the BABY TIGER to a lunch counter serving nice, cute 3.2 BEER in Carmel?

You can see for yourself how easily it could grow up into a SALOON SERVING WHISKY.

The charm of 3.2 BEER is the same as that of WHISKY—only gentler. Because you have to drink MORE to get drunk.

HERE'S THE CATCH:

If we permit the sale of BEER in Carmel NOW, then when the Eighteenth Amendment is repealed, we will have a heck of a time to keep WHISKY out.

If you have forgotten the grace and charm of the old saloon, just read Mary Austin's last book, "Earth's Horizon," and you will get a real jolt.

So, let all us old-timers and all our new-timers, too, get together and vote to keep Carmel as always. NO BEER, NO SALOONS, NO BEER GARDENS on the dunes and NO BEER and HOT DOG STANDS ON THE BEACH.

None of us wants these things and NOW is the best time to settle it. The election is Monday (15th).

Vote NO on the beer proposition, and I don't mean Maybe.

AN OLD TIMER.

Mrs. Kissam Johnson left Tuesday for New York, where she was called by a message announcing the serious illness of her sister.

Professor and Mrs. J. Savery of Seattle are in the Peter Pan Court cottage for a month.

Tooper Leidig Near Drowning Last Saturday

A near tragedy was averted about 11 o'clock when Chester B. Toombs of Pacific Grove plunged into the icy waters at the mouth of Carmel river and brought up Lawrence Leidig, Jr., better known as Tooper, after the boy had fallen from the bank while fishing.

Tooper, and his friend, J. E. McEldowney, both about 12, got up early that morning and went out to the river, and all went well until the bank on which Tooper was sitting gave way and precipitated the boy into ten feet of water. J. E. immediately began shouting for help and when Mr. Toombs, who was fishing nearby arrived the boy was about to go in after his companion. Mr. Toombs forbade his going and quickly pulled off his heavy boots and jumped in. He found Tooper near the bottom, doubled up and no sign of heart beat. When he brought him up he could not gain a foothold, but held to the bank and put the boy on his shoulder to drain the water out, shouting all the time to attract the attention of those on the opposite shore. When they realized the situation they came at once, and fortunately were experienced in the art of resuscitation.

Tooper, with the exception of a slight cold appears to be none the worse for his experience. He was able to walk when he was taken home from the river by his rescuers and his companion.

Grimshaws Win In Tire Sale Contest

Selling more Firestone tires than any other service station from Santa Maria to San Jose, the Associated Service Station at San Carlos and Sixth won first prize in the contest held recently by the Firestone Tire company.

The contest was conducted on the point system, ten points being won for each tire sold, and two points for each tube. The total number of points made by the Grimshaws was six hundred and eighty-four, in the period between January 26th and April 25th.

H. Grimshaw, who have had the station more than two years, wish for a little over two years, wish to thank their many friends who helped them win.

They credit their advertisements with Carmel Sun for a large part of their success.

Miss Helen Marx of Kingsburg was in Monterey Saturday. Miss Marx has been connected with the Kingsburg Union high school, but her subjects comprising art, manual training and agriculture have been dropped on account of lack of funds. Incidentally she applied for a position in the Carmel school while here.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS SALARIES TO BE CUT

Voting a straight 15 per cent reduction in teachers' salaries, the trustees of the Monterey Union high school slashed about $14,000 from the annual budget at a meeting held in Monterey Saturday afternoon. This and other economies will reduce the budget $24,000.

Although enrollment of pupils is expected to grow about sixty in number at the opening of school in the fall, there will be no new teachers employed. The present faculty however, will be retained.

Under the new contracts, the board will reserve the right to close the school at any time, should funds become unavailable.

Trustees Slash Pay of Teachers for Year

The trustees of Sunset school held a meeting Monday evening to which the teachers were invited and several things of importance were taken up.

A cut of $600 was made in the salary of Principal O. W. Bardarson, and the following other reductions made: Salaries of $1500 to $1700, 5 per cent: $1700 to $1800, 7 per cent; $1800 to $2000 15 per cent.

After the trustees had explained the necessity for reduction, the teachers, through Roy E. Gale, eighth grade teacher, expressed themselves as satisfied, and were very cheerful and gracious. They further pledged co-operation in economizing in every way possible on supplies.

Mrs. Daphne Scott, who taught the overflow room, resigned, but the trustees are undecided as to what they will do about the position.

THEATRE CROWDED FOR FAMED GERMAN FILM

Carmel theatre was filled to capacity for both shows Tuesday night with the showing of the famous German film, Maedchen in Uniform. The play was a strong one but so full of action and excitement, it rather tired one physically.

It is a safe guess that a large percentage of the audience were straining their minds to recall the German conversation they learned in school, while some of the fortunate few were able to understand all the dialog.

MASONS AND FRIENDS WILL SEE PICTURES

A film depicting Alaskan scenes will be shown at the Masonic club house next Thursday evening, May 18. This promises to be well worth while and the Masons and their friends are looking forward to the program with pleasure..

FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME NEXT SUNDAY

The first game of the Abalone League championship series, which was postponed a week because of rain, will be played next Sunday on the Carmel Woods diamond by the Pilots and Country club.

The champions are pretty evenly matched, and the contest, which is scheduled for 2 p. m., is expected to draw a large crowd.

DON'T FORGET RUMMAGE SALE, FRIDAY, SATURDAY

The public is asked not to forget that a rummage sale will be held Friday and Saturday of this week at the home of Miss Margaret White on Ninth street.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase literature for the society. Sale will begin at 10 a. m.

Cooked food will also be available at the sale.

The many friends of Charles Guth, Carmel's popular traffic officer are glad that he is able to be out again. He was confined to his home for more than a week by illness.

CARMEL MISSION RESTORATION WORK

We had the pleasure this week of being shown over the old Carmel Mission by H. Downie, caretaker, who is in charge of the restoration work being undertaken there.

At present they are working on the old padres' quarters. The original building, though not as old as the church was built over a hundred years ago. It was then two stories high, but in restoring it they are carrying the walls up only one story.

Where the original foundation is of sufficient strength, new adobe bricks, made on the grounds are being used to reproduce the old thirty-inch-thick walls. Plaster of the same material as the bricks is spread over the finished wall, which will then be washed with color.

The restoration work is going on continuously and the plan is to reproduce as nearly as possible the entire layout of the old mission.

"BROADWAY" DATES SET FOR MAY 19, 19, 20, 21

(By Marion Pinkham)

It had been a long, strenuous rehearsal and everyone was tired, —so tired, in fact, that tempers had reached the snapping point. Cigarette stubs littered the Green Room hearth, gangsters and cabaret girls waited for cues wearily. Director Frank Sheridan's collar was loosened, the prompter was almost asleep. Another Carmel Community show, "Broadway," was in preparation.

Suddenly there was a rush and Mazie, one of the chorus girls, turned on a fellow "hoofer" and shrilled, "I'll make your shirts roll up your back like a window shade!"

The other girl gave Mazie's shoulders a vicious shove. "I'll spit in your eye, you—"

Voices were tense with nervous strain, but no one was shocked. No one called out, "Girls! No squabbles or you're out of the show." For it was all "in the book," one of the 'back-stage" glimpses into the life of chorus girls, who are trained to throw dazzling smiles at their night club audiences but who often throw insults—and even more substantial objects—at one another when they are behind the scenes.

"Broadway" is a lively little play of the song-and-dance-and-thrill, variety, abounding in pretty girls, romantic "hoofers" and villainous underworld characters. Directed by Frank Sheridan and Kit Cooke, it is rapidly taking on a truly professional tempo. Those playing important parts include Sam Ethridge, Jack Gribner, Lu Johnes, Helen Wilson, Robert Parrott, Milton Latham and Byington Ford. Ruth Austin, who has originated the dances, is also taking a part in the chorus which includes Patty Johnson, Betty Pinkham, Tiny Pearson, Edwina Pinkham and Ruth Pinkham.

Other roles are filled by Holly Smith, Millard Pierson, Larry Grenier, Ed Files and Dave Davis.

"Broadway" will be presented the nights of May 18, 19, 20 and 21. Tickets will be on sale at Staniford's drug store and the Carmel drug store.

MRS. J. L. COCKBURN ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Mrs. J. L. Cockburn entertained friends Wednesday evening with contract bridge at her home on Seventh and Carmelo. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Abernathy, Dr. and Mrs. David Matsky, Mrs. Stella Stafford Mather, Mr. Frederick Burt, Mr. Philip Reamer, Mr. and Mrs. John Neikirk and Mr. and Mrs. Ranald Cockburn.

LEFT TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF MOTHER

Professor O. W. Bardarson received word Friday of the death of his mother at Blaine, Washington, and left Friday night to attend the funeral services. She had been ill for some time and Mr. Bardarson visited with her in the early spring. Friends sympathize with Mr. Bardarson in his bereavement. Mrs. Farley is acting principal during his absence.

CALIFORNIA NEWS REVIEW

Bay Bridge Work To Start

With the agreement by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to purchase not to exceed $61,400,000 worth of the bonds, actual construction on the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge is planned to start by June 1. Contracts awarded recently totaled $36,841,315.

Dairy Pay Roll Increased

Pay roll checks issued in the Tulare-Tipton district for March amounted to $147,554, an increase of nearly $19,000 above that of the preceding month. Dairymen were further encouraged by the third 1-cent rise in butter during the month.

Fire Alarm System Needed

The City Council of Los Angeles was appealed to recently by the Building and Safety Commission of the county that provisions be made in the new budget for the installation of a fire alarm system for San Pedro, Wilmington and the Harbor district.

Malibu Labor Camp Approved

The establishment of a labor camp for youths, under supervision of the State Forestry Division, has been approved by the State Highway Commission, who set aside $10,000 for its support. The camp is in the Malibu hills of Los Angeles county, where the workers will build a fire truck road.

World's Deepest Oil Well

The deepest oil prospecting hole in the world was the distinction accorded the Kettleman oil fields recently when the crew drilling the North Kettleman Oil and Gas Company's Lillis-Welch No. 1 well, in section 24-21-17, passed the 10,586-foot mark and continued into the 10,600-foot depth.

Gasoline Sales For March

According to the monthly report issued by the State Board of Equalization taxable gasoline gallonage for the month of March in California amounted to 109,560,000 gallons, compared with 98,133,000 gallons in February and 114,830,000 gallons in March, 1932. The tax collections for the month totaled $3,253,917, showing a decrease of 5.6 per cent from March, 1932.

Conventions In Oakland

The meeting in Oakland of six conventions within the next two months is expected to bring to the city more than ten thousand delegates and visitors, representing the Hermann Sons of California, California Building and Loan League, State Council Knights of Columbus, Native Daughters of the Golden West, California Osteopathic Association, and the Alturians International.

High School District Urged

Petitions were circulated recently asking County Superintendent of Schools Adkinson to call an election in the Placentia grammar school district for the creation of a high school district. Placentia now is a portion of the Fullerton High School district. The petitions set forth that the Placentia district has more than 600 units of average daily attendance in the elementary schools, and that its assessed valuation is in excess of $8,500,000.

Imported Gardenias Watched

Gardenias are under suspicion by State Department of Agriculture officials who believe these plants to be citrus white fly carriers. Recently a shipment of gardenia cuttings from Denver was found heavily infested with this pest. It is not known whether these cuttings originated in Colorado or were a reshipment from some Southern State. Quarantine officials were urged to view with suspicion all gardenia plants coming into California and to examine them carefully for citrus white fly, no matter where they may come from.

River Boat Lines Curbed

In assuming jurisdiction over all inland water carriers the State Railroad Commission is "attempting to prevent collapse of the California inland water transportation system." The commission's order, directed to about eighty companies and individuals operating boats on the Sacramento, San Joaquin and Petaluma rivers and tributaries, and San Francisco, San Pablo and Suisun bays provides for stringent regulation. The commission declared its investigation had disclosed "astounding illegal practices, which, unless curbed, will inevitably lead to a breakdown of an esential part of the transportation system."

New Church Building

A new frame building is being constructed by Indians of the Tulare Indian reservation, near Porterville, which is to be used for Catholic Church services.

Grape Leaf Hoppers

W. E. Gilfillan, Tulare county farm adviser, is advising cyanide dust as a recourse against the grape leaf hoppers that are showing up in Tulare county vineyards. This treatment to be followed by a mixture of Pyrethrum oil.

Tomato Plants Transplanted

Preparing for the summer months when many truck loads of tomatoes are sent to the Los Angeles markets, growers in the Antelope Valley are planning to grow them in wholesale quantities this season. On the Carter pear orchard tract, near Lancaster, 30,000 plants were recently transplanted.

Employment Gain Reported

The State Department of Industrial Relations reporting for the month of March revealed that jobs for 4,660 workers were found during the month by State employment agencies, showing a gain of 13.1 per cent over February, as against a drop of 17.6 per cent for the same month in 1932.

Stabilization Explained

Speaking before a group of Corona business men recently D. A. Field, growers' service manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, declared that actual operation of the stabilization agreements on ooth Valencia and navel orange shipments and market, would go into effect when ninety per cent of the non-exchange shippers had signed.

Aliens Barred On Relief Job

Settling a problem which has perplexed city and county relief directors for some time, Attorney General Webb has given an opinion that aliens cannot be employed on public relief projects. The opinion was in answer to Governor Rolph who asked if Imperial county could employ needy Mexicans on part-time relief jobs supported by State-borrowed R. F. C. funds.

No Beer For Palo Alto

In a test case brought before Superior Judge R. M. Syer in San Jose, it was ruled that 3.2 per cent beer could not be sold in Palo Alto. "Palo Alto can enforce any local ordinance which it desires," Judge Syer declared. "If the City Council wanted to prevent the sale of peanuts, it could enforce such a law." Because of the closeness of Stanford University, Palo Alto has had an anti-beer law for many years.

Raisins Show Sales Gain

William N. Keeler, general sales manager of the Sun-Maid raisin growers, reported recently that raisin sales for March this year, were considerably in excess of those for the same month in 1932. The general manager also reported that 31,000 tons of the old California raisin pool raisins had been sold by Sun-Maid on behalf of the Federal Farm Board since they were taken over by the cooperative several weeks ago.

New Ridge Route Highway

Work is being rushed on the alternate Ridge Route Highway from Bakersfield to Los Angeles, and it is expected that the road will be open to the public the latter part of this year. The four bridges being built at a cost of $155,000, will be completed sometime in June. The work being done on the route is the last word in highway design with the roadway being carried through deep cuts and over deep fills to obtain a direct route that will save more than ten miles between Bakersfield and San Fernando.

Child Welfare Needs

Leaders attending the annual meeting of the Western Federation of Women's Clubs, held in San Francisco recently, offered the following suggestions for the advancement of child welfare work: Greater care for crippled children; Boarding homes for juvenile delinquents; and, School facilities in detention homes. Dr. Mariana Bertola, vice-president of the organization, stated that "the mother is the foundation of child welfare work. Her health must be good. She must know how to clothe and care for her child. She must study psychology, so that she will realize child motives and be able to open the great field of sympathy and understanding to her child."

"Last Survivor" Club

At a recent anniversary meeting in Ventura twelve of the thirty-two Venturans, who departed for Los Angeles sixteen years ago to enlist in the World War, formed an organization, the principle purpose of which is to meet annually on the anniversary of their enlistment. Twenty-two of the original number were taken into service. Carroll A. Lind was chosen president of the newly-formed club, and also, custodian of a bottle of 3.2 per cent beer on the label of which each of the twelve signed their names. It was specified that the last survivor of the group will be required to observe the club's anniversary by drinking that bottle of beer. Six of the twenty-two men who enlisted have died, three live in other parts of the State.

Garlic Cutter Invented

A garlic-cutting machine invented by F. S. Hudner, San Juan blacksmith, has attracted the attention of the German Consul-General, who wrote to Roy D. McCallum, San Benito county farm adviser, for information pertaining to the device and its manufacture. Hudner is said to be the only known manufacturer of a garlic-cutting machine, which is proving valuable to growers in the Hollister district, as well as creating wide interest in other districts.

ABALONE LEAGUE

By Doc Staniford

All plans of the world series between the Pilots and Country Club was knocked into a cocked hat when old Jupiter Pluvius, commonly called rain, stepped in and took a decision over the whole works. A very tough situation in any man's land. Interest, at the boiling point—everybody asking, will the game be played today? Players on the respective teams waiting nervously, to wait the call to do or die, to give their all to win the game for the Pilots or the Country Club team. Freddy Godwin, Captain of the Country Club, was turning away guests from his hotel. Steve Bancroft, Captain of the Pilots giving away airplanes to the Swiss Navy, just so their teams could play a good old game of base ball. But after all, the game had to be postponed. Well anyhow, we will all have to live through it and try it again next Sunday.

But the main thing of importance, is the arangements of the dinner dance, given for the benefit of Bob Stowell, by the members of the Abalone League and their friends at the La Playa Hotel May 15th with Charles K. Van Riper master of ceremonies. This will be one of the biggest events of the season, and all the members of the League who remember the last time when they attended the dinner dance of about three years ago are waiting for this one in particular because it has been especially planned to help Bob Stowell who needs this assistance. So letter go! And you all know we will have a good time! The Pilots and Country Club, will play next Sunday at 2 p. m. on the Abalone field in the Carmel Woods.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The U. S. Civil Service Comission has announced an examination for Storekeeper in the National Park Service.

Nearby points where examinations will be held are San Francisco, San Jose and Santa Cruz.

For information in regard to the requirements of this examination and for application blanks apply promptly to the Secretary, Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at any of the offices listed above, or to the Manager, 12th U. S. Civil Service District, Post Office bldg., San Francisco, Calif.

MONTEREY PENINSULA ORCHESTRA AT WORK

Taking up their work where they left off with the departure of Michel Penha, after their last concert here, the Monterey Peninsula orchestra is now in full swing and getting ready for another presentation,

Miss Carol Weston, of San Francisco, Penha's assistant, will direct the players for the next concert, which will be presented in Salinas as well as Carmel.

An excellent program of the world's best music is being prepared.

Marjorie Edwards, youthful violinist of San Jose, will play the concerto, and other new members who will take prominent parts are Dr. Marcel Bedri, Robert Nagler and Rudolph Pelunis, all of Salinas, and Mrs. J. F. O'Hanlon and Dr. F. V. Randol of Pacific Grove.

Miss Weston has won a place for herself as director, being the best, if not the only, woman orchestra leader.

Carmel people will look forward to this concert with great pleasure.

HUMANE SOCIETY TO HOLD DOG SHOW

A dog show will be held at Del Monte, June 4th, for the benefit of the Monterey County Humane society which promises to attract a great deal of attention and interest.

The officers of the show are as follows:

President, S. F. B. Morse. Vice Presidents, Carl Stanley with T. C. Peterson of Berkeley. Treasurer, McKimm Hollins. Secretary, Miss Marion Kingsland.

The names of the Judges will be announced later, with details of the affair. The Monterey County Humane Society will serve a lunch all day on the grounds.

Mrs. Louise Dobbins, president of the Humane Society will have charge of the refreshments.

Peter Elliott Jr. and his family from San Francisco, have taken a cottage in Peter Pan Court for an indefinite period.

SUNSET WINS FROM SEASIDE 17 TO 4

The Sunset School kept their slate clean, running up their string of victories to six straight. The Seaside School was the victim and took a very bad licking from the home crowd. Final score was, Sunset 17, Seaside 4. Again it was the case of too much Johnny Sheridan who could show up a lot of pitchers in High School right now. The Seaside team was composed of a bunch of big youngsters who have lots to learn about playing base ball. Most of them suffered from stage fright and Sunset could have easily run up a bigger score if they desired. With only four more games to play, Sunset should make it a clean sweep and win the championship again.

TOM WARREN GRADUATES WITH HONORS FROM U. C.

Mrs. B. O. Warren will witness the graduation of her son, Tom Warren, at the University of California Monday. She, with the citizenry of Carmel, has just cause to be proud of the young man, he being the valedictorian in a class of 2600.

Tom is a product first of the Carmel grammar school in the days when Miss Powell was principal and has shown high scholarship in his class work at Monterey Union high as well.

All join in congratulations and best wishes for the future.

CENTRAL AIRPORT AT CARMEL THEATRE, MAY 12-13

Heralded as the "Dawn Patrol" of 1933, Richard Barthelmess' newest picture "Central Airport,, comes to the Carmel Theatre on Friday for a limited engagement. The super-thriller glorifies the flying heroes of peace—not war—and is said to exceed anything that the talanted star has ever done.

The powerful story deals with the hazardous lives and the exciting loves of these hardy navigators of the stormy air-lines. Richard Barthelmess plays the part of a returned war hero; crashed a heavy toll of lives, and is "grounded". Discredited in the game he loves and the only one he knows, he goes barn-storming with a traveling air-circus, and falls in love with Sally Eilers, a parachute jumper.

Their glamorous love affair and the many thrilling plane crashes build "Central Airport" into a mighty drama. The principals are as reckless with their loves as they are with their lives. But Barthelmess believes that a flyer with his life always in the hands of fate, is a coward to marry.

Broken and filled with a savage recklessness when he learns that he has lost his girl forever, Barthelmess turns to any flying job that offers enough danger, whether it's fighting in the Orient, or leading a South American resurrection. He becomes famous even to the far corners of the earth as a pilot who laughs at death, and even goes out of his way to tempt it.

The ending of this throbbing First National spectacle is one of the most spectacular and thrilling scenes ever filmed as it presents a phase of peace time aviators' work. Barthelmess as the pilot rescues the passengers from a sinking plane in the storm swept Caribbean sea.

Wellman, former war aviator who directed Wings, and Young Eagles, outdid himself in Central Airport with his unbelievable sky scenes.

A strong cast supports the stars, among them being Glenda Farrell, Harold Huber, James Murray, Claire McDowell, Grant Mitchell, Willard Robertson, Arthur Vinton and Charles Sellon.

Rian James and James Seymour wrote the screen play from a story by Jack Moffitt.

Remodeling of the Leidig grocery is well under way, and should be finished in about two weeks. A great deal of night work has been done by the carpenters to speed the completion.

La Playa hotel is being increased in size by the addition of three new guest rooms and a pent house apartment. Manager Fred Godwin's mother will occupy the apartment.

WIMODAUSIS CLUB TO HAVE BAZAAR

The members of the Wimodausis club, comprising the wives, mothers, daughters and sisters of Masons, will hold a bazaar at the Masonic club, May 18, from 2 to 4 p. m.

The ladies have been busy these past months making lovely fancy work, novelties and gifts.

MORE THAN 2,000 PEOPLE ENJOY GARDEN CLUB SHOW

Between 2,000 and 2,500 people enjoyed the display of peninsula floral beauty staged by the Monterey Peninsula Garden club in Del Monte's Copper Cup room Saturday and Sunday.

More than 100 peninsula gardens contributed to the success of the show, some of them being represented by a dozen or more different varieties, while the wildflower exhibit alone included 58 distinct varieties found blossoming at this season.

Mrs. W. C. Bogen of the Country club was chairman of the show committee, which included nearly a score of the club members. William Fiddes, club president, was one of the most active workers and was in charge of assembling containers for the exhibit. Miss Kate Wilson of Asilomar served as secretary of the exhibitors, containers and numerous other details.

Many Special Features

Planned solely to demonstrate the vast and varied floral resources of this region the event was an unqualified success, both in attendance and in the number and quality of the exhibits. Entries were not judged and no awards were made.

Several special features enhanced the interest of the show. Examples of flower arrangement, designed for color harmony and pleasing proportion, in various types of containers, were presented by members of Miss Emma Waldvogel's class in flower arrangements.

Mrs. George Eardley also offered a table featuring coral bell, delphinium, iris, watsonias, white tulips and other items in origiinal and artistic arrangement.

Japanese Styles Shown

Two examples of the classical Japanese tradition in floral decoration, contrasted with two modern Japanese arrangements, were also shown by Mrs. George Kodama. Bronze containers in novel shapes added to the effectiveness of the table.

The wildflower display was collected and arranged by R. C. MacChesney, assisted by Max N. Schaeffer, C. A. Montross, and pupils of the Douglas school, under the direction of Miss Jessie Tuthill.

Monterey's municipal rose garden furnished a number of magnificent specimens, occupying a special table in the rose secion, which filled one entire end of the room. Mrs. Francis E. Lester was in charge.

Cacti and succulents in a bewildering variety of sizes, shapes and colors, including several bearing blooms, were shown by J. K. Oliver, Lynn B. Childs, C. A. Metz, Mrs. J. Quyntillo, Miss Anne Grant and others. This table was dominated by a blooming Yucca. A miniture rock garden by Miss Grant and a dish containing 40 varieties of cactus, by Lynn B. Childs, excited much interest.

Hotel Aids Success

Two orchids were shown by Alex Eddie, manager of Del Monte Nursery, who also cooperated in many other ways to aid the success of the show, in addition to obtaining use of the Copper Cup room for the purpose.

Monterey Peninsula Country club was represented by a table, arranged by Mrs. M. D. Crandall, featuring calendulas in yellow and orange tints, stock in pastel shades, and other blooms.

Swiss hybrid pansies from the Pebble Beach gardens of Mrs. William May Garland were shown in a box arrangement characteristic of English shows and attracted much attention.

Lester Rowntree of Carmel Highlands showed new and rare plants, suitable for rock garden use, and a table of California wildflowers.

One of the highlights of the show was the pelargonium display by G. E. Schilling of Carmel, another being the rich tones of the iris shown by L. C. Hecht, who displayed more than 50 varieties. Iris were also shown by Mrs. Ida Oldroyd, C. S. Olmsted and others.

Other unusual features included the radio violas, in delicate lavender tints, shown by Mrs. Dan Murphy; passiflora from the Carmel garden of Lincoln Steffens; cactus blossoms shown by Miss Marguerite Tickle; auricula shown by H. W. Wardle; fuchias shown by Harry A. Greene and William Fiddes; camelias from the Misses Jacks' Memory garden; double nasturtitums and novelty carnations grown by G. E. Van Copenolle; Dr. D. Spence's pansies, Iceland poppies and sweet peas; the primrose optonica with which one corner of the room was banked solid, from the Dan Murphy gardens, together with schizanthus, tulips and iris; a table of godetias, fragrant gladiolas, snapdragons, and variegated "parrot tulips," from Mrs. F. A. Ingalls; and roses in every conceivable shade furnished by Mrs. Tobin Clark, Mrs. Frances Brooks, Mrs. W. M. Garland, Mrs. Francis E. Lester, Mrs. Mast Wolfson, Mrs. E. J. Bolce, Hugh McGlone and many others.—Monterey Herald.

Facts from a Property Owner About Beer

Editor of the Carmel Sun:

In the deeds to Carmel real estate there is a specific restriction against the sale of intoxicating liquors. That Congress has declared that beer may be legally sold does not remove beer from the class of liquors at which the restriction aimed. The sale of beer was illegal in Carmel before prohibition. Why? Because of this restriction. In a court of law the intent of the framer of the restriction and the understanding had by him with persons who bought real estate is what would govern. And if you were to put Mr. Devendorf on the stand and ask him, "When you inserted this restriction did you or did you not intend that it should prevent the sale of beer?" he undoubtedly would answer, "I did." And if you were to ask him, "While talking with a prospective purchaser did you ever give him the impression that the restriction did NOT include beer? he undoubtedly would answer, "No". And if you were to put on the stand many property owners and ask them "When you bought your land was it your understanding that this restriction prevented the sale of beer," they would answer "Yes."

There are many persons in Carmel who bought with this belief and understanding and who believe the sale of beer would be a violation of an expressed contract. Real estate has changed hands over and over again and with every transfer the contract was caried along. Any one of the present owners could involve the town in an expensive lawsuit.

Votes of people can't nullify a contract, nor place a new interpretation on a restriction that has stood unquestioned for 25 years in hundreds of transfers of real estate.

There comes in here the question of good faith that is far more vital to the future peace and welfare of Carmel than the little money that might be made from the sale of beer.

MONTEREY ELECTION PUTS THE INS OUT

Falling in line with the rest of the world, Monterey voters voted their ins, out, at the election held in that city Monday, and John L. Steward, with 748 will be the new mayor, following the administration of J. P. Sandholt, who received 717 votes. R. Maddock and J. R. Perry will succeed Carmel Martin and E. E. Littlefield as councilmen. The election was hotely contested.

Mrs. Ilya Jadovskoy left Friday to spend a week with her daughter in Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wheldon have as their guest Mrs. Fessenden, who accompanied them home from their trip to Pasadena last week.

A CALL TO ACTION

Vote NO on Beer

Shall we prevent the turning of Carmel into a cheap resort?
Shall we keep Carmel true to its own charming traditions?
Shall we preserve the choice quality of Carmel as a village of homes?

If so, be sure to VOTE NO at the Special Election Monday, May 15

Carmel Powerless to Regulate Sales

If the sale of beer is voted for at the coming election Carmel will be powerless to control the granting of licenses or to decide where or how it shall be sold BECAUSE OF RECENTLY ENACTED STATE LAW.

State Takes Over Control

Under this law the State takes over the control of the sale of beer, providing for two kinds of licenses:

(a) A $10 license permitting the sale of beer in original packages, practically anywhere, for consumption off the premises.

(b) A $50 license for the sale of beer to be drunk with meals in hotels, restaurants, coffee-houses, etc.

Beginning of Old Fashioned Saloon

Under these conditions it would be difficult to determine whether or not a place is an eating house, since a mere excuse for a lunch would suffice to permit the selling of beer. "A sandwich, even a pretzel, may become a legal meal, and a bar with stools in front of it may be classed by the law as a lunch-counter." This would mean an entering wedge for the old-fashioned saloon.

No Limit to Number of Licenses

Moreover under this state law the City Council would have to grant a license to any bona fide applicant who had not been convicted of felony. With this unrestricted competition and the cost of licenses it is questionable whether the sale of beer would really advance the interests of the merchants.

Personal Liberty

A recently revised City Ordinance allows the transportation of beer and its local consumption in other than public places, so that it may be procured now by those who wish it.

Prosperity Without Beer

Carmel has never from its earliest beginnings permitted the sale of beer, yet the town has grown and prospered. We have established a village of individuality known all over the world. Real estate values have tremendously increased. We have attracted an exceptionally fine class of people. The sale of beer in Carmel would inevitably undermine Carmel's distinctive character. This character once lost could never be restored. Do not kill the goose that lays the golden egg.

A Political Warning

Beyond this, Carmel citizens should be warned against the admission into their local affairs of aggressive liquor interests uniting with politicians in an old and dangerous combination. This influence is already putting in its appearance where beer is sold. We must guard against a position from which there is NO RETREAT.

Successor for Argyll Campbell Is Announced

The matter of the resignation of Attorney Argyll Campbell from the post of assistant district attorney, which Campbell's many friends here had thought closed, was brought up again Monday, with the appointment of Attorney John Thompson of Carmel Valley to that office.

Atty. Noland withdrew his charges of non-cooperation against Atty. Campbell until after the election in Monterey, as he did not wish political capital made of his action.

The district attorney charged that Atty. Campbell failed to cooperate with him in stamping out gambling in the county and in seeing that no slot machines should be permitted. Atty. Campbell denied these charges, but Atty. Noland stated Monday he still felt the charges were true.

Finds Sausages, Bananas of Similar Architecture

"Evidence of efforts to implant food wisdom in the Young Japanese mind is provided by the National Provisioner in a quotation from a sample of school composition.

"'The banana are great remarkable fruit. He are constructed in the same architectural style as the honourable sausage. Difference being skin of sausage are habitually consumed, while it are not advicable to eat rapping of banana.

"'Banana are held aloft while consuming; sausage are usually left in reclining position. Sausage depend for creation on human being or stuffing machine, while banana are pristine product of honourable Mother Nature.'"

"'In case of sausage both conclusions are attached to other sausages; honourable banana, on the other hand, are joined on one end of the stem and opposite termination are entirely loose.'"

Bottomless Lake of Pitch

Trinidad, known as the "Land of Hummingbirds," attracts many visitors because of the famous Pitch lake at La Brea, a mysterious expanse of asphalt which appears to have no bottom, as holes left when the pitch is dug out fill up again immediately. In Trinidad one sees many Hindus, the men in elaborate turbans, silk blouses and flowing robes and the women wearing gold rings, anklets, heavy earrings and silver bracelets. Port of Spain, the principal city, has a population of 200,000, mostly black.

Illiteracy

The law stipulates that aliens over sixteen years of age must be able to read the English language or some other language or dialect, but exception is made in the case of persons physically incapable of reading; also, any admissible alien or any citizen of the United States may bring in or send for his father or grandfather, over fifty-five years of age, his wife, his mother, grandmother, unmarried or widowed daughter, provided they are otherwise admissible.

Composition of Snow

The atmosphere contains a small amount of ammonia and it is possible for the snow falling through the air to gather up some of this ammonia, just as it carries dust, minute organisms and impurities from the air. After the first snow has carries down these impurities, the remainder of the snow that falls is clean and practically pure. Newly fallen snow is very largely air, varying from three to thirty parts of air to one of ice crystals.

R. R. Bridge Across Tops of Trees

A railway runs across the tops of trees in California. At a spot near the coast there is a deep ravine, over which a way for the trains had to be made. To build a bridge of stone or iron was too costly, so it was determined to utilize the trees. The top branches were cut off at the level of the banks and the timbers for the line were laid on the stumps. This railway bridge is said to be quite safe. —London Tit-Bits.

Grim Jest

The story is told that in Texas years ago a bank president swindled his depositors, causing the sign to be displayed on the institution: "Bank Suspended." The embezzler was caught and promptly strung up, and under the tree the lynchers, with grim humor, placed the notice: "Bank President Suspended."—Boston Transcript.

September 5 has been decided upon as the opening date.

Express Service

The express companies, which forward goods by express service, are private corporations not owned by the government. The idea of the "express" arose about the year 1833 from the system of sending parcels in care of stage-coach drivers, and the shipping of parcels by coasting vessels, in care of the captains. Herndon's express and Adams' express both began business about that time, running between New York and Boston. The business grew to large proportions in this country, and by 1012 the four largest express companies represented an investment of over $40,000,000, with gross annual receipts of over $132,000,000. The introduction by the United States Postal department of the parcel post system, on January 1, 1913, had a marked effect on the business of the express companies.

NOTHING DOES SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE AS YOUR TELEPHONE

She is Remembered

MOTHER'S DAY is Sunday, May 14.
Go to her if you can.
But if you cannot, what is more truly personal than your voice?
Counties, states, oceans are spanned readily and clearly.
How much your voice will mean to her . . . on Mother's Day and many another day.
